CONVERSATIONS

1. In the sermon, there was the image of “flying in fog” and needing a fixed point of reference. Where does life feel foggy for you right now?
  - a. When life feels foggy, what do you usually do (control, avoid, numb, distract, overthink, overwork, shut down)?
2. Pilate asked Jesus, “What is truth?” Why do you think that question feels so relatable in our moment?
  - a. In what areas do you feel the “fog” of this question the most?
3. Jesus said that those “on the side of truth” listen to him. What does listening to Jesus look like for you these days?
  - a. Where has listening to Jesus challenged your own assumptions about the nature of the truth?
4. Dr. Priebe named different areas that the truth of Jesus impacts; truth about God, meaning, right and wrong, life after death. What area of truth seems to be the most important in your own life right now?
  - a. Where is there tension between what Jesus says about that truth and what culture is saying?

5. Pilate didn't stay to hear Jesus' answer, and later acted out of pressure and pragmatism. Where are you tempted to rush past Jesus and just do what "works" in the moment?
    - a. What ways have you "missed" what Jesus was doing in your life because of acting too fast, too reactively, or under outside pressure?
  6. What's one way you want to slow down to listen to the truth of Jesus this week?
